

The do not call law is great. I have two little ones and i dont need them woken up by some telemarketer calling inthe evening. I just dont need the phone ringing ten times a night with people trying to sell you something or give you credit card. I think it is a great thing... Thank you Long Live Howard Stern!!!!